The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.
 You brought a vine out of Egypt, to plant it you drove out the nations
 It stretched out its branches to the sea, to the Great River it stretched out its roots Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field.
 God of hosts turn again we implore, look down from heaven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted.
 And we shall never forsake you again: give us life that we may call upon your name. God of hosts bring us back; let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Alleluia
 I call you friends, says the lord, because I have made known to you every thing I have learnt from my Father

Give the Lord glory and power

Sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.

Tell among the nations his glory, and his wonders among all the peoples.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heavens are naught. It was the Lord who made the heavens.

Give the Lord your families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name. Bring an offering and enter his courts.

Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth tremble before him.

Proclaim to the nations: "God is king." He will judge the peoples in fairness.

Alleluia Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth Alleluia

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup overflowing. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
